

CALIFORNIA WORKER SAFETY & HEALTH DURING COVID-19

WORKSAFE

Summer 2020 Workshop Series

Worksafe is offering seven FREE workshops on occupational safety and health (OSH) in the age of COVID-19. These online workshops will cover a range of urgent issues facing low-wage, immigrant, and workers of color. Join us each Thursday from July 9 to August 20 to grow your knowledge of crucial OSH concepts and protections for vulnerable workers.

Attendees

The workshops present info and skills useful for workers, worker leaders, advocates, and attorneys. All are welcome; no law degree is required.

Presenters

Our speakers are experts in occupational safety and health, workers' compensation, disability rights, and other employment rights. Hear from Worksafe, Legal Aid at Work, Ford & Wallach, the Center for Workers' Rights, and the Alexander Community Law Center.

Credit & Materials

MCLE credit is available pending California State Bar approval. Participants who attend all workshops will receive a total of 8.0 MCLE credits that meet the General Education requirement. Participants will receive a PDF of all slides from the series, plus additional source materials. All webinars will be recorded and available at a future date.
